The stock market to-day was subject to various niluences, well calculated to disturb its equanimity. The course of business was not generally satisfactory to those who are looking for higher prices. Another "break" occurred in Wabash, which, after opening at 23, was toyed with throughout the day and finally declined to 19%, with a close at 19%. The effect was felt elsewhere in a decline that ranged from % to 1 per cent. The decline in Wabash is alleged to be due to a reported decrease in the gross earnings of $13,000 for the third week in December; but it is generally understood that other and more power-fil influences have been at work, and that specuntive interests are for the moment more potent than any natural causes that may be quoted. Much anxiety was expressed with reference to the probable action of the Lake Shore meeting, which is announced for morrow. A dividend of from 3% to 4 per cent is unted upon, but those who have carefully

The gold market commenced business with the price at 112, but closed at 111%, the changes being entirely within these figures. The opinion is freely expressed that some day not very far distant this market will astonish the community, not because of speculation, but as the result of a discovery that our only real 'measure of values' is incon-instent with the existing condition of our commercial affairs. The rates paid for carrying to-day were 2, 3 and 2% per cent. The specie engage ments for to-morrow amount to $200,000.

THE JESUITS IN EUROPE.

ADDRESS BY PROPESSOR WILLIAM WELLS, OF UNION COLLEGE, SCHENECTADY, BEFORE THE METHODIST PREACHERS,

Disagreeable as yesterday morning was the Mission chapel, where the Methodist ministers are accustomed to gather every Monday morning for social and intellectual intercourse, was crowded. Professor William Wells, of Union College, who has recently returned from an extended tour in Europe, bad been announced to address the meeting on a subject now of almost universal interest—namely, "The Jesuits in Europe.". His address showed the growth or the Order in different countries in Europe and their expulsion from many of them. It showed also by historical evidences that the Order is not religious only but is also political, and that one of the cardinal articles of its faith and constitution is the temporal as well as the spiritual sovereignty of the popes. The address, however, dealt more largely with recent events which are fresh in the minds of the public. The short, sharp and decisive war between Austria and Prussia over the Danish provinces of Holstein and Schleswig; the war between Austria and Italy and the struggle between France and Prussiaall these he claimed were ecclesiastical wars rather than political or territorial wars. The conflict now being waged by Blamarck against the conflict new being waged by Bismarck against the Church of Rome the Professor insisted was forced upon Bismarck by the Pope and the Jesuits. The policy of the Church he showed had been to keep Protestant Prussia and Germany so disunited that the Open could assert his own supremacy in temporal as well as spiritual matters. It is a fact of history, he declared, that the present Pope in his earlier years favored Italian unity in the hope that he should be the King of Italy as well as the head of the Church. But when he discovered that the Italians did not want him and would not have him he opposed Italian unity and known that he capital the force of this major excommunication upon kings or plecelans, and remarked that the King of Italy, Dr. Dollinger and others have not got over it. In regard to the Church laws and the school laws which have given written and spoken, Professor Wells gave a brief enistory of those laws and their bearing upon all classes. The high Church Lutherans are as much great offence and about which so much has been written and spoken, Professor Wells gave a brief history of those laws and their bearing upon all classes. The high thurch Lutherans are as much offended, he said, at Bismarck and as much opposed to those laws as the Cathelic hierarchy are or can be; and it is simply a question of the life or death of the German Empire. When Sadowa and Sedan overthrew the Latin Power in Europe and cleared the way for German unity, and when at the same time French bayonets were withdrawn from

BOME AND THE DOGMA OF INFALLIBILITY
Was promulgated, Bismarck, with his keen perception, saw that opposition to his dream of national unity would be stirred up by the Church or in the Church. Hence he sought to concluste Kome until the unity of Patherland had been completed. But the reception that Cardinal Prince Hohenlohe had from the Pope assured Bismarck that the Church would not be conclusted, but that German unity, if accomplished at all, would be secured against the intrigues and opposition of the Church. When the Pope sent to Emperor William to ask his aid in the restoration of His Holiness to his temporal sovereignly and received a negative answer he became doubly enraged, and then all the machinery of the Church was set in motion against Bismarck and Emperor William and against the unity of the Fatherland. And, as the Catholic Orders had control of the senools and universities and in many provinces held all the civil offices, they had ample accilities to create trouble for the Kaiser and his Premier, At the same time they were receiving stipends from the government and scheming to overthrow it, and to give the predominance in European politics to a Catholic Orders had control of the senools and universities and in many provinces held all the civil offices, they had ample accilities to create trouble for the Kaiser and his Premier, At the same time they were receiving stipends from the government and scheming to overthrow it, and to give the predominance in European politics to a Catho
